

Mark Broughton

Mark is happily retired, having worked for ExxonMobil for 33 years, mainly on expatriate assignments from the UK in Houston Texas. He was a Geoscientist in various Exploration positions – Geophysical Operations, Geophysical Processing, Information Technology Support, Global Business Development and Commercial Analysis.

After retirement in July 2015, he filled his spare time working at Humble ISD as a GIS Analyst in their Routing Department, and as a Special Needs Bus Driver. He loves cartography, carpentry, snow skiing, DIY and reading.

Born in England, raised in North Wales, Mark became a US citizen in 2013 after settling in the US. He is married with three children, now dynamic adults, who were all educated in the Montessorian Method.

Mark has served on the Kingwood Montessori School Board of Trustees since August 2015 and as Secretary from 2015 until March 2022.

Mark now lives in Berthoud, Colorado with his wife and soulmate Kate Broughton.
