

School Director – Azram Aslam

Azram Aslam is an accomplished and passionate Lead Montessori Teacher with 10+ years of diverse teaching experience and 2+ years as Co-director of Kingwood Montessori School.

Her teaching career expands through college-level and school-level teaching at various educational organizations in Pennsylvania and Texas. Azram started her Montessori teaching career as Lead Upper Elementary Teacher at Kingwood Montessori School. She is a firm believer in the Montessori Method, promoting Maria Montessori's educational techniques and methodologies. Azram holds multiple bachelor's degrees in psychology and law from Punjab University in Pakistan, Masters in Communication Studies from Edinboro University in Pennsylvania, and Upper Elementary Montessori Teaching Certification from NAMC. Azram moved to Houston to enjoy the sunny and warm Texas weather after spending 15-years in Pennsylvania with her husband and two daughters. She loves traveling, gardening, and cooking in her free time. She is actively involved in many community service and non-profit volunteer initiatives.

Her favorite Maria Montessori quote is: "The child is both a hope and a promise for mankind."
